Go to Tools, Internet Options and click on the Security tab. Scroll all the way down until you see "Enable XSS filter". This is defaulted to Enable. Set to Disable and apply the changes. IE 8 will need to be restarted for the change to take affect.

Security Settings - Internet Zone
Settings
Enable Allow websites to prompt for information using scripted winc Disable Enable XSS filter Disable Disable Disable Disable Disable Disable Disable Disable Automatic logon only in Intranet zone Automatic logon with current user name and password Prompt for user name and password Prompt for user name and password
*Takes effect after you restart Internet Explorer
Reset custom settings
Reset to: Medium-high (default)
OK Cancel